I agree to abide by the LOROS rules, and enter the race at my own risk and will not participate unless I am medically fit. I understand that no persons or organisations will be held responsible for any accident, injury or loss sustained by me during or after the event. I understand the organisers reserve the right to alter the arrangements and conditions should circumstances require. I agree that should I not be able to complete the event in less than 1.5 hours, the organisers may withdraw me from the race at their discretion. I agree to complete the medical information form on receipt of my race number bib to be completed on the reverse of the bib for use in medical emergencies only. I understand that FR Systems Online Entry will process my information to provide me with pre-event communications, and will publish finishers' names, timings, and respective running club (if applicable) on the Rothley 10k website. In the event of a cancellation due to things like adverse weather, acts of God etc we will return entrant fees on request within four weeks of the race date. Otherwise all monies for ticket prices will automatically go to LOROS.

I recognise that as the Rothley 10k is held in the public arena, there will be the opportunity for any person to obtain video footage or photographic images.

Please confirm that you accept our terms *required

I hereby give my explicit consent for my/our details to be passed from FR Systems Online Entry to Mattioli Woods plc for the specific purpose of future Rothley 10k invitations and promotional purposes (which may include video footage or photographic images). I have the right to withdraw this consent at any time by emailing marketing@mattioliwoods.com. I'm happy to give consent
